FEATURED ARTIST

KARINA LLERGO

Karina Llergo, a multicultural heritage artist, was born and raised in Mexico City, where her roots intertwine with Mexican, Armenian, and Spanish heritage. Karina's academic pursuits led her to attain a Bachelor's degree in Graphic Design and further advancing her skills through specialized studies in Multimedia, Animation and Abstract Art. Under the mentorship of renowned Mexican artist Roberto Cortazar and portraitist Enrique Estrada, both of whom recognized her innate talent, Karina was encouraged to persist on her artistic path.

NONPROFIT PARTNERS

ARTreach

ARTreach uses the arts to change lives. Through the power of connection, we deliver quality art programs to the most vulnerable populations in our communities: children and families at risk, special needs groups, and senior citizens. In partnership with professional artists and volunteers, we aspire to create positive impact on the community.

The Museum of Fine Arts, Houston

The Museum of Fine Arts, Houston, serves as a welcoming and inclusive place for all people, connecting the communities of Houston with diverse histories of art spanning 5,000 years and six continents.

Miller Outdoor Theatre

The Miller Theatre Advisory Board (MTAB) acts as a steward of public and private funds to provide professional-caliber performances, free to the public, at the Miller Outdoor Theatre for the cultural enrichment of Houston's diverse communities and the visitors to this great city.

Fresh Arts

Fresh Arts nurtures a local ecosystem designed to position artists and creative entrepreneurs for success. Our programs help advance the careers of local artists and creative entrepreneurs by complimenting their artistic practices through carefully cultivated communities that facilitate shared resources, knowledge, experiences and audiences.

Pink Bows Foundation

Our mission promotes stronger safety protocols to be consistently implemented at entertainment venues, while providing safe spaces and protecting attendees.

Second Servings

Second Servings' mission is to alleviate hunger and reduce waste in the city by rescuing surplus food from businesses and conducting free same-day delivery to approved charitable meal sites.

MFA The Museum of Fine Arts, Houston

Barbie Dream House

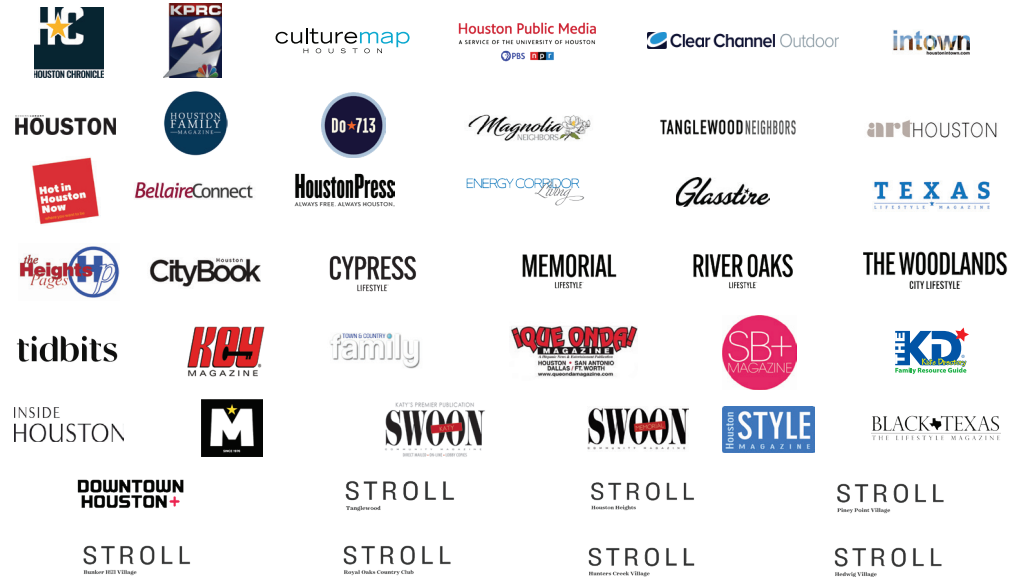

The Barbie Dream House is a vibrant and engaging area, surrounded by white picket fencing and featuring round activity tables adorned with pink umbrellas. The newest attraction offers a range of selfie stations, including a giant pink shoe, a sparkly oversized purse, and a Barbie convertible cut-out, providing ample photo opportunities.

Decorated with pink bows, the gazebo will be a focal point where both children and adults can immerse themselves, posing inside Barbie boxes for memorable photos. To enrich the experience, various activities such as coloring sheets, paper dolls, and a dress-up area will also be available.

Check out our newest attraction in Sam Houston Park between the mainstage area in upper Sam Houston Park and the Active Imagination Zone in lower Sam Houston Park.

ACTIVE IMAGINATION ZONE

Our Active Imagination Zone is a popular area that inspires young artists by featuring hands on art activities. Our non-profit partners create the art activity and then roll up their sleeves and help our little artists make masterpieces they can take home. We are grateful for the support that our non-profit partners provide us. They help us further our mission and they enrich our community.

Danielle Reich (Saturday, 11:00AM - 12:30PM)

Danielle Reich is a jazz, swing, and French chanson vocalist performing in southeast and central Texas. Danielle has been featured at the Trinity Jazz Festival, the Manouche NW Concert Series, the Houston Composers Salon, the Austin Jazz Festival, Houston Fringe Festival, and the Western Swing Hall of Fame, and will perform at LuluFest Austin in 2024.

Amanda Pascali (Saturday, 1:30PM - 3:00PM)

"Too foreign for here, too foreign for home, and never enough for both" – Amanda Pascali's music is as unique as it is universal. Her powerful storytelling and enchanting timbre take us on a journey of beauty and human connection.

Gracie Chavez (Saturday, 4:00PM - 5:30PM)

Gracie Chavez is an ambassador for the Texas music scene. She honed her taste-making skills on the decks to earn top accolades and Houston's Best DJ (2016). She also co-founded Bombón, a collective DJ/musicians based on screwmbia, Houston rap and tropical bass who made a cultural impact in the Lone Star State.

Raquel Cepeda (Sunday, 11:00AM - 12:30PM)

Raquel Cepeda is a jazz singer and songwriter who brings the best styles and rhythms from around the world to the refined language and aesthetics of jazz. Her latest album "Passion" was nominated for "Best Jazz Album" at the 2020 Pepsi Music Awards.

Horace Alexander Young Trio (Sunday, 1:30PM - 3:00PM)

Horace Alexander Young is a 21st Century musician whose combined saxophone and vocal style revisits the sensitivity and grit of Lester Young and Cannonball Adderley, and the smoothness and grace of Nat King Cole. After 30+ years in the music business playing, arranging, composing and recording music for other artists his focus now is on his personal artistry and mentoring the next generation of musicians.

Charlie Perez (Sunday, 4:00PM - 5:30PM)

An H Town Charlie DJ set is a world funk and jazz journey through the 70's, 80's, and 90's. He mixes in live percussion from Cuba and Brazil to elevate the experience for the listeners, who quickly become dancers.

Gary Cain (Saturday, 10:30AM - 12:00PM)

Gary Cain is a Canadian-born, Austin-based guitarist, singer, and songwriter with one foot planted firmly in the blues, and the other foot planted in seemingly everything else. He's been called "ridiculously talented" and a "jaw-dropper" by Blues Matters Magazine, and is considered by many to be among the top guitar players in the blues-world.

The Modern Standard (Saturday, 1:00PM - 2:30PM)

Houston-based The Modern Standard is comprised of pianist Ben Clifton, bassist AJ Moyler, and drummer Graeme Francis. They began performing together in late 2023, and have carved out a space in Houston's diverse jazz scene with their emphasis on original compositions, sophisticated arrangements, and infectious grooves.

The Broken Spokes (Saturday, 3:30PM - 5:00PM)

The Broken Spokes are a beloved Texas traditional country outfit with a name synonymous with country due to the famous Austin honky tonk. This well-seasoned outfit's put in the time honing their craft in honky tonks across Texas, perfectly illustrating the textbook definition of country music in its purest form.

DeSoto Rose (Sunday, 10:30AM - 12:00PM)

DeSoto Rose has become one of Houston's favorite cover bands performing Americana, Indie, Folk Rock, Alt Country, and Classic Rock. DeSoto Rose is: Heidi Kaim (vocals), Nick Karam (vocals, guitar, mandolin), Andy Bost (bass), Cameron Clark (keyboard, banjo), Frans Sluiter (guitar), and Bruce Godzina (percussion), with guest vocalist Ayesha Najam.

Hot City Brass Band (Sunday, 1:00PM - 2:30PM)

Houston's Hot City Brass Band is a respectful nod to the New Orleans style second-line band. They draw on the tradition but also add their own twist of pop, classic soul and 90's r&b covers that leave you feeling nostalgic and keep the party going.

LaQuin & the Family Tree Band (Sunday, 3:30PM - 5:00PM)

LaQuin is a saxophonist, educator, and songwriter from Houston, TX. He is a graduate of HSPVA and holds a BA in Professional Music from Berklee College of Music in Boston, MA. LaQuin & the Family Tree Band are a mission driven funk and improvisation band consisting of saxophone, drums, guitar, turntables, vocalist, and LaQuin's on spot arrangements by Ableton Push.
